PROFILE

As an experienced Frontend Developer with a knack for crafting intuitive user interfaces, I excel at translating design concepts into seamless digital experiences. Proficient in HTML, CSS, JavaScript, Bootstrap, PHP, MySQL, and phpMyAdmin, I bring a well-rounded skill set to every project. My 9-month internship has provided hands-on experience and reinforced my ability to create engaging web solutions. Driven by a passion for innovation, I am committed to excelling in frontend development and delivering high-quality, user-centric results.
